Greetings from customers-turned-owners Janice, Josh and son Jaden! In 2014, we saved our favorite restaurant "The Happy Bamboo" from closing when the previous owner decided to retire.

It has been a dream come true to add new and exciting items to the menu and watch the popularity grow. We are now a thriving local restaurant making a new name for ourselves as The Happy Hooligans.

We believe vegan food should be delicious and full of flavor. Each dish is made-to-order and we go to great lengths to add flavor at every stage of the cooking process, from our house-made sauces to our cast-iron grill.

We are proud to share with you our love of vegan food and we know you will find new favorites each time you visit.

Thank you for supporting our small business and our family!

We hope to see you again soon,

Janice, Josh and Jaden
